KEEP A COPY

Please be sure to make a copy of your work before you submit it. If you have submitted assessment work electronically make sure you have a backup copy. On rare occasions an assignment gets lost in the system. In such a case you must be able to provide another copy.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the presentation by a student of an assignment that has been copied in whole or in part from another student's work, or from any other source (eg published books or periodicals or internet sites) without proper acknowledgement in the text.

COLLUSION

Collusion is the presentation by a student of an assignment, as his or her own which is in fact the result in whole or part of unauthorised collaboration with another person or persons.

CONSEQUENCES OF PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

In any case where a student has been involved in plagiarism or collusion, this will be reported to the Head of School. It may be reported to Student Administration and recorded in the student's academic file.
In any case where a student has been involved in plagiarism or collusions in an assessable task the marks awarded for that task will be zero, and no substitution of an alternative task will normally be permitted.
In any case in which a student has been involved in plagiarism or collusion the Head of School may refer it to the Departmental Assessment Committee under the terms of Statute Chapter XII.
Where an allegation is substantiated, penalties may include exclusion from the University or a substantial fine.
