The 2016-2017 Lesley Lynn Design Competition

Terms and Conditions of Entry

1. This competition is open to teams of between two to four persons.

2. Each team must include at least one student who is enrolled in the Bachelor of Architectural Design, or Master of Architecture by Coursework, or Master of Architecture with Master of Landscape Architecture at the University of Adelaide. The remaining team members may comprise students of any other program of the University of Adelaide. Team members must nominate a team captain to be responsible for the matters under clauses 7, 15 and 17.

3. A team may not include a member who is a member of the University of Adelaide's academic or professional staff.

4. No person may be a member of more than one team.

5. Subject to clause 7, if at any time during the Competition, a member of a team ceases to meet the eligibility requirements, the team will be disqualified.

6. Entry into the competition is by completing the online form at:

   A team may be entered into the Competition by any of its members, but that entry will not be valid unless and until all team members confirm their acceptance of these terms and conditions when contacted by the University. Incomplete registrations will not be accepted.

7. A team may, through its team captain, change the team captain, remove an existing member or add a new member to the team at any time up to 9 January 2017, provided that:

   7.1 The team must at all times meet the criteria set out in clauses 1 to 4;

   7.2 Each member of the team (including the incoming or outgoing member) confirms in writing to the University that s/he agrees to the change to the team; and

   7.3 Each member of the team (particularly any incoming member) confirms their acceptance of these terms and conditions.

8. Each team may submit only one design into the competition.

9. The design that forms the basis of a team’s submission must originate from one or more members of that team. By submitting its design, the team and each member of the team hereby assigns to the University in perpetuity all copyright in that design, including all rights of use, reproduction and adaptation. The team and each member of the team must, if requested at any time during or after the competition, sign such documents as are reasonably requested by the University to further evidence that assignment of intellectual property rights.
10. In submitting a design, the team and each member agrees to indemnify the University and its officers, employees, and agents from any liability or damages of any kind, including legal fees and costs, resulting from any claim of infringement of copyright or any personal or proprietary right of any person or entity in relation to the team’s design.

11. Other than as set out in clause 12, teams and their members may not contact or discuss the competition or the details of their design with any employee of the University. Any queries regarding the competition may only be directed to the following contact:

   The Lesley Lynn Design Competition
   c/o The School of Architecture and Built Environment The University of Adelaide
   Adelaide SA 5005
   Email: lldhousing_comp@adelaide.edu.au

The University may choose to convey responses to submitted questions and queries to all teams so that each is equally informed. The University reserves the right to reject any design where the team or one of its members contravenes this clause.

12. Each team will be assigned an academic mentor (to be assigned by the University in its absolute discretion) who will make themselves available to the team for a maximum of an hour to discuss the competition and the team’s proposed design. The team is not required to use the services of the mentor, and the team and each member acknowledges that if they do so the mentor will under no circumstances be liable to the team or its members for any liability suffered in relation to the Lesley Lynn Design Competition, any lost expectations, or any failure to understand intellectual property rights, or the rules or requirements of the competition.

13. By entering the competition, each team and each member of the team grants permission to the University to use, reproduce and communicate the design or components of the design for use in the Lesley Lynn Design Competition related press and marketing materials, including but not limited to the Lesley Lynn Design Competition web page, booklets, media releases, and advertising. Winning teams must make themselves available for interviews and other marketing activities upon reasonable request.

14. The team’s design:

   14.1 should address the criteria set out in the design brief; and
   14.2 must be submitted to the School of Architecture and Built Environment, Front Office, on February 27th 2017, by 4pm; and 14.3 must be submitted in the format required by the design brief.

15. After submission of the design the team captain may apply to the University for reimbursement of up to $200.00 of the team’s costs associated with the model making, printing and/or mounting of the design, by submitting the relevant receipts to School of Architecture and Built Environment, attention Ms. Melissa Wilson

16. There are two prizes available:

   First prize, $10,000.00
   Second prize, $5,000.00
17. The winners will be decided by a panel of judges selected by the University. The names of the winning teams will be announced by 31 March 2017. Prize money will be paid into the account of the team captain, and it is the responsibility of that team member to disperse funds to the remaining team members as agreed amongst themselves.

18. Subject to the assessed merit of the submitted designs, the judges may decide not to award one or both of the prizes. If there is more than one entry of equal merit, the judges may elect to share the prizes equally amongst such entries.

19. The decision of the judges will be final. No communication will be entered into in relation to any decision of the Judges.
